DARTMOUTH CARRIES OFF FIRST EVENT

McGill Takes Third and Fourth Places

AUGURS WELL

Wade and Brown Crowd
Dartmouth for Lead

By capturing third and fourth place
in the intercollegiate cross-country ski race held at Dartmouth in connection with the winter carnival which opened yesterday, McGill contenders, but your's carnival champions, have made a splendid bid for the leadership of the first half of the intercollegiate winter sports.

A scant one minute and a quarter separated the second McGill man from the winner of the race, and the first red and white man to cross the tape was nosed out of second place by a split second of time.

Edson, of Dartmouth, last year's winner of this event, again led the field, running the five mile course in 45 min. 53 secs. Tom Farwell, also of Dartmouth took second place with 46
min. 26 secs., while Bob Wade of McGill was adjudged third with 46
min. 27 secs., and Tom Brown, McGill came fourth with 47 min. 6 secs.

The placing of the McGill men is considered as a very auspicious start in the race for the intercollegiate ski championship since the red and white were successful in bettering their showing of last year in this event
when the leader of the McGill aggregation sited into fourth place. The Improvement of Bob Wade who last year took twelfth place and this year crowded the Dartmouth entry for second position is especially noteworthy.

The course is reported as being a hard one to negotiate involving much level work, conditions being aggravated by fresh snow which made the course sticky.

The cross-country run is the first of a series of events run off to decide the winner of the Wittall trophy which McGill now holds, and which is offered for competition among the members of the Eastern Intercollegiate Ski Association.

McGill lost the Dartmouth meet last year by four and a half points, but finished the Montreal meet with a clear majority of seventeen points for the combined meets.

INTERESTING TALK GIVEN ENGINEERS

Mr. Hackett Speaks on Law
of Building

At the Engineering Institute last evening, Mr. Hackett addressed the members of the Institute and a large number of guests, taking as his subject the heavy legal penalties imposed on engineers for any error in their work.

Mr. Chalmers, the chairman, introduced the speaker as the foremost legal advisor of engineers in the city
as well as being an engineer himself of great note.

Mr. John Hackett then began his talk with a few humorous remarks;
after which he went straight to the heart of his subject by telling how preachers, lawyers, and doctors may all make mistakes and yet remain within the pale of the law, but that a single technical error on the part of an engineer will bring him grief
in the law courts. And in connection with this Mr. Hackett asked this question: "Why should engineers be compelled to attain the height of perfection, while others dally in mediocrity?"

The man who lives alone in the wilderness is jack of all trades, but acquires skill in none (Mr. Hackett goes on to say); but in the case of a city man, he has to specialize. He becomes proficient in only one line of work, and is utterly incapable of doing other things; hence the need of laws. But Mr. Hackett went on to show how the law regarding engineers' duties, although sufficient at the time of its making, has need of enlargement, and revision. To prove this, he cited instances to show how the courts have had to infer the delicate shades of meaning which certain cases require, and how in all these cases the engineer is dealt with very severely.

Mr. Hackett ended his address by congratulating the engineers of Montreal, who have to deal with such severe climatic conditions, in the following words: "It is the highest tribute that can be paid to your pro-

PSYCHOLOGY DISARMAMENT AND PEACE

Prof. McDougall Will Speak

AT R.V.C.

McGill Psychological
Society

"Psychology, Disarmament, and Peace" is the subject of an address to be delivered tonight at 8 o'clock by Professor McDougall of Harvard at the Convocation Hall of the R.V.C.
The address is given under the auspices of the McGill Psychological Society. Principal Currie will occupy the chair.

At the present time, Professor Mc-Dougall is head of the Department of Psychology and Director of the Psychological Laboratory at Harvard.
He is an Englishman by birth, and was, before coming to America, reader in Mental Philosophy and Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Oxford. He received his education at Owens College, Manchester, at Cambridge and at St. Thomas Hospital, London.
The speaker has also written a number of well known works on psychology in its different aspects, and is reputed to be one of the greatest American authorities on the subject.

MINISTER IS MORE NEEDED THAN LAWYER

Theologs Defeat Law in Debate Last Night

KEEN ARGUMENT

Importance of Both Professions Was Greatly Stressed

The minister is more necessary to modern society than the lawyer.
Cousens, Boomhour and Amaron, representing the Theological Colleges and upholding this argument were given the decision of the judges in a debate held in the Union Grill Room last night. Spector, Schwilberg and Common represented the faculty of law. The decision was reached only after considerable time had been spent by the judges in discussion. The award was not unanimous, there being a dissentient voice. Professor Welsh of the Presbyterian College rendered the judges' decision.

The lawyers devoted a lot of time to pointing out that the lawyer is a leader and a necessity to the material world, and that the material world is more important than the spiritual.
At considerable length, the theologs
sought to establish the opposite.

Spector, leader of the affirmative,
after stating the resolution "that the lawyer is more necessary to modern society than the minister", defined each of its principle terms according to the Oxford Dictionary pointing out that his side would adhere to these definitions. He then gave a brief summary of the rise of the legal profession.

Law, he claimed, is a morality of the highest kind. Religion is built on faith and law on facts, he continued. "The minister preaches and the lawyer acts," said the speaker. In addition, the qualifications of a lawyer are both numerous and high. The lawyer deals with justice in this life
and not with immortality.

Opening for the negative, Boom-hour dealt at length with the nonessentiality of the lawyer in rural districts. So small was the income of one lawyer in a certain Quebec rural community, that notwithstanding the exorbitant fees he charged, he had recourse to bootlegging, to bring his

DATES DECIDED FOR GYM DEMONSTRATION

To be Held in R.V.C. Convocation Hall

The dates for the R.V.C. Gym Demonstration are now settled definitely as being Friday, March 21st and Saturday, March 22nd. Before Theatre Night was being discussed, the evenings of March 28th and 29th had been thought by the Committee to be suitable, but as now there is every possibility of "Theatre Night" taking place then, this was reconsidered, and the "Gym Dem." will be held on March 21st and March 22nd.

The Gym Demonstration at R.V.C. is a well known affair, and for the past few years has been held annually with the exception of last year, when owing to the meet of the "Women's Intercollegiate Basketball League"
taking place at McGill, it was not given. In preparation for this year's "Dem." the Finance and Ticket Committee has already been elected, and tickets will shortly be on sale. Posters will soon be put up and an interesting programme is being prepared.

With the advancing of the date of the demonstration, the time for the working up of the programme will be shortened appreciably. It is hoped therefore that the students, by turning out regularly to their gym classes, and attending extra practices, if necessary, will co-operate with enthusiasm and good spirit with the members of the Physical Education Staff, who will be giving much of their time and valuable advice towards making the R.
V.C. Gym Demonstration as great a success as in former years.

"I hear your boy has entered college, Hiram," said Jehel.
"Yes," assented the other.
"How is he doing?" asked the friend.
"The professors say his skull is too thick to get anything through," answered the father.
"Oh, ha!"
"But, of course, that makes him a star in football."

of the Williams Hinge-Cap, we offer the following prizes:
1st prize, $100; 2nd prize, $50; two 3rd prizes, $25 each;
two 4th prizes, $10 each; six 5th prizes, $5 each. Any more persons submit identical slogans deemed worthy of prizes, the full amount of the prize will be awarded to each. Contest closes at midnight March 14, 1924. Winners will be announced as soon thereafter as possible. Submit any number of slogans but write on one side of paper only, putting name, address, college and class at top of each sheet. Address letters to Contest Editor, The J. B. Williams Co., 1114 St. Patrick St., Montreal, Canada.

Williams is as much better to shave with as the Hinge-Cap is better than other caps. The lather is heavier and holds the moisture in against your beard. Quicker softening results. Also, Williams lather lubricates the skin. There is noticeable absence of irritating razor friction. And Williams takes good care of the skin. Though you shave daily, your face remains smooth and feels comfortable.
Williams is a pure, natural-white cream absolutely without coloring matter. Try it!

MONTREAL, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1924.

YOUTH AND THE PRESS

In this issue of the Daily, we print, in outline, a series of charges made by The Financial Post against individuals and organizations—especially the Student Christian Movement—at the University of Toronto, and also a portion of "The Varsity's" answer to The Post. We are doing this for a specific purpose. The Post is read widely in Montreal and we understand that its accusations have attracted some attention in this city, the total effect being non-beneficial to universities in general and McGill in particular. If the men down-town take The Post too seriously—and they are apt to do this—they may come to the conclusion that the institutions of learning are hot-beds for the propagation of national discord, for the Toronto weekly is, in one particular place, very sweeping in its allegations. But such is by no means the case and if we can help to off-set this impression our efforts will be justified.

In the first place we have implicit faith in student sanity and in the soundness of the Student Christian Movement, which is so unjustly berated by Colonel John Bayne MacLean's publication. We have followed the activities of the local Association for the past three years and during that time we have never seen a sign of anything symbolic of the Red flag. And from what we know to be true, the local organization is very closely duplicated in other universities. Toronto, Queen's and McGill have all listened to the same speakers under the Movement and in no case have they left an unpleasant flavour here.

Of course we earnestly believe that the more ultra-conservative things, like The Post, tend to be somewhat antagonistic toward student thought and are liable to call "wolf" when there is not even the hair of such an animal in sight. And their rallying cry is composed of such words as Communism, Sovietism, and Bolshevism; all worn rather pale by misuse and over-use. Student thought, though it may be somewhat idealistic at times, is certainly not to be feared and we can devoutly thank whatever God there is that there are some people living, who are not afraid to think. The conditions in society throughout all lands are nothing to be especially proud of and there is not the slightest doubt that betterment is needed. This is one of the great ends toward which such organizations as the S.C.A. are working; but as a result of their efforts they are more liable to incur wrath and disfavor rather than support and encouragement. At least, that is in the more ultra-conservative quarters about which we speak.

In McGill there have been study groups, devoting time to such subjects as industrialism and internationalism, but the discussions are always entered into with open-minded and sanity. In Toronto the situation is much the same, and it is almost unbelievable that a sensible paper would try to trace a connection between an S.C.M. group and the Third Internationale at Moscow. But that is what The Post has done.

This matter is one which could be discussed at greater length but far be it from us to take up any more space or any more of your time. It is regrettable that The Post should air such statements as they have done, especially when there is no need for an airing. But when we read such articles, and listen to some good people utter thoughts along similar lines, we are almost forced to come to the conclusion that there are many good Christians living in a Christian country, who are not at all fond of the ideas of Christ, a teacher who preached the absolute need of social justice and the necessity of international friendship.

THE SWIMMERS IN ACTION

McGill undergraduates will be given the opportunity this year of seeing the intercollegiate swimming championships, which are being held to-night at the K. of C. baths. Last year Toronto Varsity took the honours but the present Red and White squad is a strengthened aggregation and will give their ancient rivals a great tussle. The Blue and White is strong, for the team is excellently rounded and is formidable in all departments, though several good men have been lost by graduation. McGill on the other hand has been fortunate in securing some very valuable additions and will be well worth seeing. A swimming meet is always of interest, for it is by no means an every day common-place affair. To-night's event however, is a super-attraction and we are tempted to take it for granted that the galleries will be filled with McGill supporters. The swimmers want to win back the title. Help them do it. Your attendance is worth much more to the team than the price of admission is to your pocket.

fession, that there have been so few instances of failure under such rigorous, and trying conditions." Mr. Hackett then devoted almost an hour to answering questions on many fine and disputed points with regard to the contractors' and builders' law; and the gathering was so enthusiastic, that the enquiries began almost to take the form of cross-questioning, when the chairman begged that Mr. Hackett be excused due to the lateness of the hour.

Mr. Frances, the re-elected president in a few choice words told of his own experience in this field, and on behalf of the Institute thanked the speaker very warmly for his most interesting and enlightening address.

DECIDE CHAMPIONSHIP IN INTERCOLLEGIATE SWIMMING AT K. OF C. TANK TONIGHT

Varsity Team in Town—Practised Yesterday—Vernot, Bourne, Ross, Clarholm, Findlay, Bethel and Hughes on McGill Team—Have Been Hard at Work Since Christmas—Ward, Uren, Vennels, Keefer, Wood, Latchford and Derbyshire will Uphold Blue and White—Water Polo on Saturday.

Tonight at eight o'clock in the K. of C. Tank, Varsity and McGill battle for the Intercollegiate Swimming championship. The Varsity team arrived in town yesterday and practised last night in the K. of C. Tank. Their team is very similar to last year's, only two new men being included. McGill will certainly have to fight hard to win.

All the McGill mermen have been practising hard since Christmas and Coach Vernot has spared no efforts to get a real clean fighting aggregation together. The team is composed of George Vernot, Clayton Bourne, Illi' Ross, "Vic" Clarholm, W. Findlay, "Pete" Bethel, and "Gordie" Hughes.

George Vernot has been swimming for McGill for four years. He is Canadian Champion at several distances and holds many Canadian records. He represented Canada at the 1920 Olympic Games coming 2nd and 3rd in two events. In Intercollegiate swimming he holds the 50 yards, 100 yards, and 200 yards records. This year he is taking part in the relay race, breast stroke, plunge, and 200 yards.

George is captain of the team. Illi' Ross has been swimming for McGill for three years, and is one of our fastest men. Two years ago he won the 50 yards and 100 yards Intercollegiate Championships. This year he is entered in the Relay, 50 yards speed, 100 yards and 200 yards speed.

Clayton Bourne is in his first year at college, but he has made a great reputation. He is a Canadian champion at several of the short sprints. Clayton should make the Olympic team this year. Last Fall he brought the 100 yards Dominion Championship to McGill. He is entering the Relay race, 50 yards, 100 yards and 200 yards speed.

"Vic" Clarholm is also in his first year at McGill. Under the coaching of Vernot he has developed into a first class swimmer. He is to take part in the Relay race, 50 yards speed, and the diving. Everybody looks to see "Vic" make good.

"Bill" Findlay, although in his fourth year at McGill, has only taken part in one Intercollegiate meet. Last year he came second in the breast stroke. This year he has been practising hard and any man that beats him will have to make fast time.

"Pete" Bethel is in fourth year Arts. He is swimming in the back stroke event and is out to garner a few points for McGill.

"Gordie" Hughes is better known as McGill's football star. He has, however, been practising hard for the intercollegiate event.

Coach Vernot has been coaching McGill's Swimming teams for the past four years. It is due to his untiring efforts that McGill has been so well represented in all swimming meets. He considers that this year's team is a well-balanced organization, and will give Varsity a hard fight.

Manager Anson and his assistants have been working hard getting everything in shape at the tank. The only thing needed is the support of the whole student body. Special reductions have been made for the students. Reserved seats, 55 cents, general admission, 35 cents. Everybody should turn out and cheer on the team. Don't forget tonight at the K. of C. tank, 255 Mountain Street, at 8.00 p.m.

The following is taken from "The Varsity."

"After some pretty close competition by the swimmers and plenty of debating on part of coach, captain and manager of the Varsity swimming squad, a team has been selected to be sent to Montreal next Friday for the Intercollegiate Meet with McGill. The men who are to represent Varsity are all of first-rate Intercollegiate calibre, and they had to fight hard for their respective positions. Perhaps the hardest battle of any was the one for the breast stroke event. Only two breast-stroke swimmers are to make the trip, and Hill, Doxsee, Chorolski, and Derbyshire seemed equally qualified for the job. A race, held last Wednesday, to decide the question, ended in a dead heat between Hill, Derbyshire and Chorolski. Chorolski has unfortunately been taken ill, and Hill and Derbyshire have been awarded the coveted positions. They have both been showing excellent condition and at times have been improving from day to day.

Frank Wood and Jack Latchford will represent Varsity in the back-stroke race. Jack is also entered for the 200 yard race which is his specialty, and he is expected to set the Red and White a good pace. Keefer Uren and Vennels are as good 100 yard swimmers as U. of T. ever had, and should hold their own in any Intercollegiate company. They have each proven their worth in past Meets, and Varsity expects great things of them."

The following was last night given to the Daily as Varsity's probable entries:

Relay team: Ward, Uren, Vennels, Keefer.

RED AND WHITE SENIOR SIX WIN SECOND VICTORY FROM ST. LAMBERTS BY BIG SCORE

McGill Trebles Score—Final Result 6-2—McMahon Registers Two—McNaughton, Wyse, and Glennie Each Tally—Combination and Speed Too Much for St. Lambert Wings—Howard Scores Both Goals for Blue and White—Few Penalties

Last night at Victoria Rink, the McGill Senior hockey squad defeated St. Lambert in a City League fixture by the decisive score of 6-2.

Except for a few moments in the dying stages of the last period, the Red and White had the better of the play and outskated and outgeneralized the players from across the river. The McGill forward line had their combination going to perfection and passed the puck at every opportunity with the result that the opposing defense was unable to cope with their combined efforts.

Coach Shaugnessy made frequent changes in the line up and the forwards kept up a pace which proved too hot for the Blue and White. St. Lambert were slow in getting their attacks away and gave the McGill wing line ample time to get back and get in some effective checking. Their combination was poor and they lost a good many opportunities to tally by failure to pass the puck at the right moment. As the game progressed, however, they improved a great deal and both their counters came as a result of a three man attack.

The first period was slow with play centering about the St. Lambert net for the greater part of the session. The St. Lambert forwards could not get going and failed to play their positions. They persisted in shooting from outside the defense most of their attempts going wide of their mark and Reid was able to handle easily the few that did come his way.

On the other hand the Red and White attack took the form of an organized offensive with two or three men going down the ice together with the result that the opposing defense was penetrated on a number of occasions and the three tallies registered in this period came as a result of well planned attacks.

The game was much cleaner than that against Shamrocks last week and although body checks were hard and frequent there were only a few minor penalties.

St. Lambert's were the worst offenders in this respect. Wheaton going off twice and Bennett once. McMahon was chased in the third period for tripping and this was the only penalty McGill incurred.

It would be difficult to pick out any individual star on either team. For McGill, Glennie turned in a spectacular game his stickhandling and speed accounting for one of his tallies. He was ably supported by his teammates. On the defense Captain Dempsey turned in a consistent game and the big defense player showed surprising speed while he and McMahon proved the stumbling block in the Blue and White attack.

McGerrigle's back checking was a thorn in the sides of the St. Lambert forwards and he received perfect support from Wyse and Bell. The substitutes gave as good account of themselves as the regulars McNaughton accounting for one of the goals.

For St. Lambert, Wheaton displayed some good checking while Howard showed flashes of effective stickhandling and scored both his team's goals.

One minute and thirty seconds after the initial period commenced, Wyse tallied for the Red and White on a long shot from outside the defense. Six minutes later McMahon duplicated on a similar play.

The McGill combination was demoralizing the Blue and White defense and several times it was penetrated by a three man attack and Powell made some lucky saves from scrambles in front of the net. Four minutes before the close of the first session McMahon scored his second when he battled in a loose puck after a mix up.

Play speeded up in the second stanza and better hockey was in evidence. Soon after the face off Horsfall almost scored after stickhandling his way from center ice but Reid was equal to the occasion and saved brilliantly. The Blue and White players were turning in a much better game and twice in quick succession broke through the McGill defense to be out-guessed by the McGill goalie.

After eleven minutes of play, McGerrigle drifted one past Powell bringing the count to 4-0 and four minutes later Glennie duplicated on a pretty individual effort.

The St. Lambert wings could not stand the pace and failed to keep up with the play.

In the third session the fastest hockey of the evening was displayed and it was at this stage of the game that St. Lambert's staged the comeback that netted them two goals. After McNaughton had scored soon after the face off play tightened up and the Blue and White players resorted to combination with the result that after fourteen minutes of strenuous hockey, Howard notched the first goal for his team, the puck gliding into the net off Reid's skate.

Three minutes later he duplicated on a pretty piece of combination. This ended the scoring and the final gong sounded with both teams traveling at a hot pace.

Billy Coutu of the Canadiens handled the game in a very satisfactory manner.

M.S.P.E. TEAMS VICTORIOUS AT McDONALD

Two Basketball Games Last Night

SENIORS WIN 29-15

Game Between Second Teams Finishes 36-18

Both M.S.P.E. Basketball Teams returned from Macdonald College victorious last night. The First Team won by the score of 29 to 15, and the Second Team defeated their opponents 36 to 18.

First Team
The first part of the game was rather slow, with the ball zig-zagging up and down until, on a pass from D. Russell, Helen Tatlow, M.S.P.E.'s star forward, scored the first goal. The play then continued very evenly and both sides scored several goals. At this point in the game combination and shooting of the Physical Eds. improved and at half time the score was 18-9 in their favour.

The second half of the game was much faster than the first and the good combination between the centres, D. Russell and E. Perry, kept the ball almost continually at the M.S.P.E. basket. Beryl Field, playing for the first time on the Seniors, showed up exceedingly well on the forward line. In this half of the game M.S.P.E. continued well in the lead. Macdonald's team suffered the loss of their side-centre, E. Copland, who wrenched his shoulder, but despite this handicap they were still able to put up a good fight. Little starred for Macdonald on the forward line, ably assisted by "Jimmy" Delahaye, jumping centre.

On the M.S.P.E. defence, Madeleine Pulkington and Z. Slack contributed their full share to the combination of the team. The game ended with a score of 29-15 for M.S.P.E.

Second Team
The M.S.P.E. Second Team started well by scoring the first goal immediately after the toss-up. This was followed shortly afterwards by three more goals for the M.S.P.E. before Macdonald, on a good combination of passes, scored their first goal. With this encouragement Macdonald's team play improved and they soon equalled the score. The play then became very close until on a pass from R. Copland at centre, A. Roy gave M.S.P.E. the lead. At the end of half time the score was 11-12 in favor of the Physical Eds.

In the second half the M.S.P.E.'s combination strengthened and the splendid work done by M. Anglin and F. Crang, on the defensive line prevented Macdonald's forwards from scoring very often. A favorable feature of the game was the lack of fouling on the part of both teams.

Towards the close of the game the ball was continually at the M.S.P.E. basket and M.S.P.E. emerged victorious with a score of 36-18.

McGILL WINS FIRST INDOOR BALL GAME

McGill Wins by Large Margin

THRILLING GAME

Strong Battery and Good Team Work Win for McGill

Last evening the McGill Indoor Baseball team met and defeated decisively the team of the University of Montreal. The defeat can be attributed only to the inexperience and lack of team work. As far as understanding the fundamentals and execution of plays as well as the keen spirit displayed, the University of Montreal ranks highly and she should be a contenting factor in the league. It was the first game of indoor baseball that the University of Montreal ever played and hence deserves commendation. The McGill team exhibited a superior brand of baseball and should have little difficulty in winning the laurels of the league. The score was thirty to eleven.

McGill started off hostilities with a bang, scoring seven runs in the first inning. It was hard for the Montreal team to break into play and it was evident that the team lacked experience. In the second inning, McGill scored four runs and in the third, eight runs. The total was nineteen to nothing when the Montreal team pulled together and sent four runs across the plate. In the next few innings both teams scored but apparently McGill was being held in check. McGill did not score in the last inning due to the superb infield plays of the opposing team.

McGill's battery is extremely strong. Pitcher Broussou has a fast ball and uses it to good advantage. Now and then a batter was fooled with one of his fadeaways. Catcher Abramovitch is a monument of strength behind the bat. He stopped everything that came his way. On the offensive he showed up also very well. The rest of the team were playing splendidly and helped toward the victory.

WHEN A MAN travels he doesn't know whether he is considered married or not. For in those United States the marriage laws are still in that ridiculous condition. One state may consider a couple married. And another state may not. So when a man and his wife move, it is always good policy for them to wire ahead and find out what their status will be. They may cross the continent, and change nuptial standing as they cross state borders, without knowing it. He and his wife can be divorced in one state, and in another state they are still married. And so it will be, until the legislators of the national government make up their minds to civilize the country, by putting a set of uniform marriage and divorce laws on the government books.

TORONTO PAPER SAYS THAT VARSITY HAS SOVIET AGITATORS

Extraordinary charges were lodged against the undergraduates of Toronto University by "The Financial Post" in its issue of January 23th. The Post, which is published by The MacLean Publishing Company Limited, Toronto, printed a front page article under the heading, "Soviet Activities in Toronto University Now Admitted" and from information received by the "Daily" it is understood that this so-called expose has attracted some attention in Montreal. The accusations made by The Post in the issue mentioned constitute part of a wordy contest which has been carried on between this weekly and "The Varsity" but unfortunately the latter is an undergraduate publication and those in this city interested in the matter have received only one version of the affair, namely The Post's. In the first place the financial publication states that "The Varsity" in its issue of January 15th, publishes an article which admits the accuracy of the statements which have appeared in The Post. It then goes on to say that "certain officials and societies connected with the University of Toronto have been aiding, abetting, encouraging and promoting this campaign for creating discord and disloyalty; that the men really back of the whole movement are the same men who are directing the Soviet campaign on the continent."

Claim Agitation Under S.C.A.

The Post continues—and this to McGill students is somewhat amusing—by saying in a sub-heading that the "Agitation is Under Auspices of Christian Association", laying particular emphasis on the fact that Paul Blanchard spoke in Toronto under the S. C. M. The Post also claims that an "Industrial Study Group" is connected with The League for Industrial Democracy, which "is a subsidiary of the Workers' Party, which, in turn, is the United States and Canadian end of The Third International of Moscow, but they each deny any official connection with the superior body."

The Post then asks why the Students' Christian Association and others have "assisted or brought speakers, and organizer after organizer, from the Soviet headquarters in New York to explain labor problems" and have not invited real labor leaders. And in conclusion this paper says: "what is found fault with today is that there are numerous organizations at work in the colleges to pervert the truth for the purpose of creating discord and centres of discord throughout Canada", ending with the claim that "The Post took up these doings in the University only after efforts had been made privately by citizens to get the authorities to appreciate what was going on, and with the object of bringing public pressure to bear."

Charges Are Denied

But there is another side to the matter and that is the one seen through the eyes of "The Varsity." Our contemporary, in its issue of January 29, devotes front page and editorial space to The Post charges, but of the two articles is of particular interest. It is as follows:

"The meeting of Paul Blanchard held last term at University (and the formation of the Industrial Study Group) is described by the Financial Post as only one of the many meetings held at the University during the past two years, where organizer after organizer was brought from Soviet headquarters in New York. The organizers who came from New York, under the auspices of the much maligned Students' Christian Association, were Judge Mott, Paul Harrison, Dr. Agnew, Paul Blanchard, W. Rose, Spewwood Eddy, Professor Fay, Professor Wrong, Dean Hatanaka and J. Griffith of China. This is the complete list of speakers for last term."

"The Industrial Study Group, The Post accuses of being an organizing committee, and of having a connection with the League for Industrial Democracy. 'The Varsity' is in possession of affidavits from members of the group denying any official connection with the League for Industrial Democracy and denying further that they are an organizing committee."

"Some of the 'organizers' from the New York Soviet Headquarters" who addressed the group since its inception, include Professor Horning, S. R. Parsons (whose advent The Post with unconscious humour prophesied as, 'the worst is yet to come') and to-day, James Simpson.

"The absurdity of calling these men organizers from the Soviet headquarters in New York is obvious."

The editorial writer on "The Varsity" states in addition that if Colonel MacLean "considers that his attacks are justified and have been made in the best interests of the University of Toronto and of the people who support this institution, he should as its friend go quietly to the proper authorities and name whom he considers to be the guilty parties, and failing that, he should come out publicly with the facts and his evidence. He and his medium have done neither. They have merely hinted at the presence of unnamed agitators at the University, in a series of articles that are calculated to stampede public opinion and to undermine the nation's confidence in its state Universities. Is this the act of a friend and a benefactor? Is it the attitude of an enemy, or is it merely the act of an unwitting sensationalist?"

The Student Version

This rather unusual storm in the tea-cup has created considerable interest here for some see the possibilities of the tea-cup whirlwind becoming something bigger. As a result of this, a member of the "Daily" made inquiries in Toronto last week-end and received the student version from the Editor in Chief of the "Varsity," Mr. A. K. Kembar, who holds that office, stated that the allegations were absolutely false and told how the battle of words first came into existence.

According to him, a request was received from The Post, asking the undergraduate paper to publish a story of interest to the student body. The "Varsity" officials expressed their willingness and a story containing matter similar to that afterwards published in The Post was received. It was of too great a length for the space at the Varsity's command and was sent back with the request that it be shortened and that the signature of Colonel John Rayne MacLean be obtained. The first request was adhered to but the member of the staff of The Post, it is claimed, stated that the Colonel's signature could not be attached, as much of the material did not pass through his hands. The charges appeared in The Post later.

The Daily also made inquiries regarding the much maligned Paul Blanchard and nothing but praise was given in answer. Dr. Harrison, who was here recently, stated that he knew Mr. Blanchard personally, describing him as one of the few who live the way of Christ. Mr. Blanchard, it was stated, is a brilliant man and gave up the chances of some of the best pulpits in the States in order to take up social work.

No Discord Centres Here

The Student's Christian Association at McGill has brought several speakers here, who have been heard in Toronto, and there certainly never has been any indication that these men were "aiding, abetting, encouraging and promoting this campaign or creating discord and disloyalty." The visitors have been of the highest calibre and have left good impressions.

The S. C. A. has, moreover, sponsored several study groups during the past year or so, groups which have taken up matters regarding industrialism, internationalism, comparative religions and Christianity. The connections between these groups and the Third International at Moscow have not been discovered as yet and officials of the Association here state that they have never seen any organized efforts for Sovietism, Bolshevism, or Communism.

And finally there has been no evidence in favour of The Post charge that "there are numerous organizations at work in the colleges to pervert the truth for the purpose of creating discord and centres of discord throughout Canada." If such insidious groups are located at McGill for the purpose of ensnaring the youth of the land they have not made themselves known throughout the undergraduate body at large. When they are uncovered the Daily will publish full details.

LEHAN AND GRAVEL ARE REINSTATED

Athletic Board Has Fully Revoked the Suspension

That the Athletic Board of Control has re-instated Lehan and Gravel as the outcome of a meeting held on Wednesday night last, was the announcement of Major Stuart Forbes when interviewed yesterday.

The two prominent skiers suspended from McGill competitive skiing for a breach of the regulations regarding participation in outside athletics without the Board's sanction, were recently conditionally reinstated, and this decision was amended and made unconditional at the last meeting of the Board.

Lehan has left for Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire, for the winter Carnival meet and is taking part in the ski jumps, cross-country running and proficiency tests. Gravel who was injured in a recent meet is unable to compete.

The Director of Athletics was non-committal regarding the construction of an artificial ice rink concerning which nothing definite has been decided. The Board will meet again the first of next week when it may be expected that this question as well as others left over from the last meeting, will be discussed.

Four dates a week is the maximum for the co-eds at the University of Missouri. It was also decided that whenever a co-ed was in a man's company after 7 o'clock she was on a technical date.

income to a satisfactory state. The minister is not always a most conspicuous person, but since he is the molder to a considerable extent of public opinion, he is very important. The welfare of a man is built up by victory in moral crises. This victory is gained through the ministrations of a clergyman.

Taking up the thread for the legal department, Common stated that as far as largeness of remuneration is concerned, country preachers fared no better than country lawyers. He laid particular emphasis on the fact that a definite code of rules is necessary for a nation's well-being. "The will of God does not go far in settling a legal dispute—something better than that is needed," said Common. Concluding, he claimed that it is the lawyer who makes society function smoothly.

Advancing to the fore for the Theologians, Cousins introduced his argument with some humorous remarks. He stressed the fact that the minister deals with thousands where the lawyer deals with hundreds. Benevolent institutions found their origin not in the legal profession but with the clergy. The lawyer does not plead for the higher ideals, but the clergy's whole interest is for the people. The minister inspires other people to act.

Schwishberg, speaking for law, after dealing with the historical aspect of the case, quoted from several authors in support of his contention. The three great acts of man, birth, marriage and death all require the services of a lawyer. When a minister records any of these he is acting in a purely civil capacity. A country's leading statesmen are recruited from the ranks of the legal profession he concluded.

Amaron, the last speaker on the negative, gave considerable attention to the great influence exerted by the minister on the community at large. The minister "by coming to tea" gets in touch with the family and benefits it. The late president Harding of the United States claimed that the church was his inspiration, Lincoln on more than one occasion claimed likewise. The influence of the minister as a comforter is also of inestimable value.

In his rebuttal, Spector sought to prove that the negative had evaded the issue. Prof. Welsh of the P. C. speaking for himself and the other judges, Messrs. Tremaine and Senecal gave the decision, to the negative.

Howard O'Hagan president of the "Nat", was in the chair.

SENIORS DEFEAT SOPHS IN HOCKEY

Score 1-0 in Third R.V.C. Inter-class Game

Yesterday afternoon on the Hollow Rink, R. V. C. '24 defeated the Sophomores 1-0, in the third game of the interclass series. The score was a fair indication of the game, which was more or less listless. Neither of the teams were up to their usual form. The Seniors did not show up as well as in the game they tied with the Juniors last week. The Sophomores, too, played a much faster game when they defeated the Freshies. The ice was badly cut up, due to the mildness of the day.

The first two periods were slow and for the most part confined to the sides or centred about the Sophomore goal. The Senior team was decidedly stronger, but wild shooting kept their score from rising. R. Turley and P. Stocking starred on the losing team, while all the players on the Senior team showed a few flashes of speed and some clever stick-handling. R. Grant had the honor of scoring the only goal, in the second period. The game consisted chiefly of scrimmages around the '26 goal, varied by occasional unsupported rushes by F. Stocking or R. Turley, which however were speedily checked by the superior strength of the Seniors.

Soon after the face-off the puck was carried to the Sophomores goal by L. Bingham and was kept there during most of the game. E. Basken cleverly saved a long shot by R. Turley. The Senior goalie had very few opportunities of demonstrating her worth. F. Stocking played her usual consistent checking game. L. Argue displayed some good checking.

The play in the second period was a little better and some excitement was created by R. Grant scoring the only goal of the game two minutes after the whistle. L. Bingham and R. Grant displayed some good combination on the part of C. Robertson and L. Bingham. R. Turley and P. Stocking did some excellent checking. The period closed with the score unchanged 1-0 in favor of the Seniors.

Miss Prowse refereed most efficiently. The line-up was as follows:

University of California, Feb. 1—(By P.I.N.S.)—General plans for University Labor Day, February 29, call for a program of construction, and improvement, whose magnitude, it is believed, will far surpass any similar undertaking in the history of this tradition.

Labor Day is a custom of long standing. Each leap year, on the extra day, which falls in February, an academic holiday is declared and the student body turns out in mass to make needed improvements about the campus. Other features of the day include a luncheon for the laborers and a dance.

ELECTRICAL CLUB WILL MEET TONIGHT

S. M. Finlayson Will Present Paper on Wireless

Having recovered sufficiently from its famous trip to Ottawa, members of the Electrical Club will tonight resume their regular series of Technical Sessions. The meeting at 5 o'clock tonight is in room 53 in the Engineering Building and Mr. S. M. Finlayson, Sci. '24 will present a paper dealing with the equipment of a large wireless station.

Mr. Finlayson has had experience in numerous large stations throughout Eastern Canada and with the knowledge that he has gleaned and the large collection of pictures that he will show on the screen, the paper will undoubtedly be one of the most interesting this year. To the fourth year men this paper comes at an especially opportune time for the paper has been so laid out that it will give a good idea of the work that the government has been carrying on along the lines of radio-wave and will throw some light on the probable developments that the men who take up the recent offers in that line may run into. The paper will be of interest to third year men as well as to those of the fourth year for radio is undoubtedly one of the coming sciences and has been correctly the "Infant Art."

PRELIMINARY BOUITS ENDED LAST NIGHT

Adams, Green and Baxter Won Their Fights

FAST BOUITS

B. W. and F. Finals to be Held Tomorrow

Two bouts were won on decisions and the third was by default in the final eliminations that were held last night in Molson's Hall. The three men who came out on top were Adams, Greene, and Baxter. Kellner was carded to meet Baxter in the 125 lb. class but was unfortunately prevented from doing so on account of having been accidentally injured.

The first bout between Adams and Stein 125 lbs. fell to the lot of Adams by virtue of his superior ring craft and the accuracy of his judgement of distance. Adams took the offensive in the early stages of the bout and held it throughout the first two rounds. At the beginning of the third round of their little argument Stein tore into Adams in a frenzied effort to snatch a last minute victory. He soon tired however and the bout went to his opponent.

The set-to between Greene and Davis went to Greene. His superior aggressive work, was much in evidence although the effectiveness of his left hook was somewhat lessened by his frequent failure to close his glove when landing. Greene won the first two rounds while the third was even.

Tomorrow night will witness a merry mix-up when the finals of the Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Clubs will take place. These bouts assume added interest on account of the fact that the winners will defend the honor of the college in the Intercollegiate Assault at Arms next week against her time-honored rivals Queen's and Varsity.

The draw to decide the College Boxing Champions in the various weights tomorrow night is as follows:
118 lb. Class, Brain vs. Goldapple.
126 lb. Class, Baxter vs. Adams.
135 lb. Class, Snow vs. Greene.
147 lb. Class, Merritt vs. Furness.
160 lb. Class, Apter vs. Marshall.
175 lb. Class, McLeod vs. Abinovitch.

Heavy Meleau vs. Hart.
The B. W. & F. College Eliminations will be held at the Union on Saturday evening. These eliminations are for the College Championships, and to a large extent will determine the men who are to represent McGill in the coming Intercollegiate Assault-at-Arms. Owing to the fact that there is to be only one night of eliminations all bouts will be finals and should be the best seen around the college this year.

Although the wrestlers have lost some of the old-timers Coach Smith has new men to take their places, and these promise to represent McGill in a noble fashion. Among the old timers who wrestle on Saturday are Rumble, Freedman, McNaughton, Howes, and Silver, some of these men represented McGill last year at the Intercollegiate Assault-at-Arms, and may be expected to present a high class of wrestling on Saturday.

The Fencers will also have two experienced men in action, Silverstone and Cresthal who fenced for McGill last year at Queen's.

On Saturday the bouts will start at 8.00 p.m. sharp, and will take place in the following order—

- (1) Fencing.
- (2) 112 Wrestling.
- (3) 118 Wrestling.
- (4) 121 Boxing.
- (5) 118 Boxing.
- (6) 126 Wrestling.
- (7) 135 Wrestling.
- (8) 126 Boxing.
- (9) 135 Boxing.
- (10) 147 Wrestling.
- (11) 140 Wrestling.
- (12) 147 Boxing.
- (13) 160 Boxing.
- (14) 175 Wrestling.
- (15) Heavy Wrestling (over 175)
- (16) 175 Boxing.
- (17) Heavy Boxing (over 175).

The men in these weights must be at the Union, and ready to wrestle when their bouts are called, or they lose by default. This rule will be strictly adhered to in every event.

Queen's and Varsity are said to be sending to McGill a very husky bunch of grapplers, their teams having been chosen some time ago, but the McGill wrestlers intend to repeat or better their occurrence of last year.

INTERESTING MEETING OF DISCUSSION GROUP

The group for the discussion of the causes of war under the leadership of Mr. H. M. Fife met last evening in Strathcona Hall.

The question at issue was to what degree have religion and education been active causes of war.

It was agreed that religion alone would not be a cause for war at the present day, but that war, once started, might be a powerful factor in increasing and embittering hostilities.
